

“What we have here are true chamber musicians : partners who know how to dialogue, listen, unite.” Frederic Trudel, about the album Mappa Mundi, icimusique.ca, Canada.

Since its debut in 1999, the Canadian Guitar Quartet has toured extensively in North and South America, from one standing ovation to the next, establishing a reputation as one of the finest guitar ensembles in the world. The CGQ has appeared with orchestra across Canada and released four critically acclaimed CDs.

The quartet has been broadcast on both CBC and Radio-Canada, has had special performances feature on Bravo! Television, in the webcast at Chicago’s Northwestern University and on CBC’s overseas networks. Don Witter Jr., of the New York Classical Guitar Society, wrote: “The Canadian Guitar Quartet made one of the greatest New York City Debuts of any artistic ensemble in decades...STUNNING !!!”.

Concerts in some of Canada’s most prestigious concert halls, such as the Winspear Center, the Palais Montcalm, the Glenn Gould Studio, and National Gallery of Canada have allowed the Canadian Guitar Quartet to develop an international reputation. The mix of dynamic original music and classical masterpieces make a CGQ concert an unforgettable experience.
